can transform generations”.

From Chairman's Desk

In the fast growing competitive world, the task and the responsibility of the academic and professional institutions was perhaps never as challenging as it is today. Spirit of competition is spreading widely throughout the world. Institutions vie (compete) with each other for better performance and position. Seeing such holistic view in the field of education, our visionaries decided to construct GECS; A temple of learning for all children of rural area. Today we impart high quality education alongwith multi-dimensional development of the learners.

We also ensure that the school has a soul i.e. its system which is punctuated by moral purpose and has a societal and ethical objective. We, thus, tailor schooling to provide all round development of child. We educate them for a purpose.....to lead a fulfilling life. We seek your cooperation to make this venture successful.
